P.P. 11-23-92

Dear Sir,

With reference to your D.O. letter No. G. 12893/P.P. 11-23 dated the 22nd March 1924 requesting me to submit a confidential report on the Character and antecedents of Mr. M.S. Krishna Rao, Editor, "Satyavadi" Office, Chamaraja Agrahar, Mysore, who has applied for permission under the Mysore Newspapers Regulation III of 1908 to edit and publish an English Weekly styled "The Weekly Tidings", I beg to state that from the repor of the Assistant Superintendent of Police, Mysore City, and from my personal interview the following particulars are ascertained.

Mr. M.S. Krishna Rao is a young man of about 25 years of age and has read up to the V Form standard and attempted to secure the London Matriculation by correspondence etc. He belongs to a respectable family and is said to be of good character. His father one Mr. M. Subba Rao is a retired Palace Official and he is said to have been editing the paper called "Satyavadi" for som time. Latterly some few years ago his son the present applicant Mr. M.S. Krishna Rao took up the editorship and is now conducting it as a weekly paper. It is being printed in his own press in his house No.1548, Chamaraja Agrahar, Mysore City.

His intention is to publish a counter-part of the said paper in English styling it the "Weekly Tidings" This was the name of the paper as originally applied for but he intends to change it to "National News". He said he is intimating this change of name to Government also.

Mr. Krishna Rao appeared to be a fairly intelligent young man. As he belongs to a respectable family and is ascertained to be of good character, and in view of his experience as an editor, I am of opinion that he may be granted the permission applied for.
